Sheryl Bragg is one of the first people a new or potential employee meets when coming to Hospice of Marion County.

She has been with HMC since 1994. Sheryl started her Human Resources career at Tulane University, where she coordinated all aspects of HR for almost 1,000 employees and placed work study students. Her next venture was in a Trust Department of the banking industry, working with investments and securities. She also coordinated HR services for a private bank in New Mexico with more than 900 employees.

Originally from Northern Maine, Sheryl moved to Ocala to be close to family. She came to Hospice of Marion County from AmSouth Bank's HR Department and has never regretted a day of that decision. Sheryl feels that part of her purpose in life is to work with hospice. She realized the special value of our services when her mother was at Estelle's House. Sheryl appreciates the ability to work in an atmosphere where smiles and hugs are the norm.

Sheryl is a current member of the Ocala Human Relations Managers Association and the Society of Human Relations Managers.

She and her husband Richard are the parents of three children and eight grandchildren.
