Prior to joining Hospice of Marion County in 1996, Jan was Director of Volunteer Services at Dover General Hospital in New Jersey and at Goodwill Industries of Honolulu, Hawaii. While living in California she was a VISTA Coordinator at Volunteers of America and the Volunteer Coordinator at the Navy Family Service Center in Alameda. Upon arrival in Ocala she joined the staff of the Volunteer Service Bureau which later became the Big Sun Volunteer Center.

Jan has served as President of Phi Beta Lambda, a business fraternity; the Chairperson of the Retired & Senior Volunteer Program Advisory Council, member of the Ocala/Marion County Chamber of Commerce & Board of Director for the Belleview/South Marion Chamber of Commerce. She is also a member of Project PUP (Pets Uplifting People) and visits Ocala Health & Rehab with her daughter and their three dogs.

During her years with Hospice of Marion County, Jan has worked as Volunteer Coordinator, Volunteer Program Coordinator and Volunteer Services Manager before specializing in coordinating the three successful thrift stores of Hospice of Marion County. The proceeds from these stores in 2007 netted about $250,000 to be used toward patient services and programs.
