Certified Hospice Care Administrator

Marge has extensive experience in health care management and leadership, which started in Pennsylvania where she worked as a charge nurse for 7 years. She moved to Florida in 1987 and worked at Sarasota Memorial Hospital for 8 years before relocating to North Central Florida and working in home care for 6 years. It was 2001 when she began her career in hospice and end-of-life care at Haven Hospice.

Marge joined Hospice of Marion County in 2010. She volunteers with Haven Hospice for the Annual Viva Bash Gainesville and Fall @ the Farm in Chiefland. Her mother is currently a Haven Hospice patient.

Originally from Merritt Island, Marge now lives in Inglis with husband Michael Peters. The couple has two grown children, Danielle and Christopher. Marge enjoys antique shopping and spending time at the beach.
