Bonnie joined Hospice of Marion County in 2007 with almost 20 years of experience in nursing, education, and palliative care; and helped to develop and continues to provide consultations for the Center for Comprehensive Palliative Care, an LLC of HMC. She developed and implemented a similar palliative care team for consultative service in hospitals and skilled nursing facilities at Lower Cape Fear Hospice in Wilmington, NC.

Bonnie is a frequent speaker for Munroe Regional Medical Center's Prestige 55 and she is a member of the Ethics Committee and the Critical Care Quality Committee. She participates in IDT rounds in the ICU and Intermediate Care Unit at MRMC. She also presents at nurse orientation for HMC and MRMC.

Married to Allen Parsons, publisher of the Ocala Star Banner, the couple has one adult son and four grandchildren. Bonnie's hobbies include gardening, cooking, barbecuing, reading, decorating, and playing with the grandkids. During years of marriage, Bonnie and Allen have lived in 14 cities.
