

Patrick J. Mangan

Past-Chairman

Pat Mangan originally joined the Hospice of Marion County Board of Directors and served from 1998-2003, returning in 2005. This is the second time he has led the board. He experienced the true benefits of the services of Hospice of Marion County when both his father and mother were cared for by our team.

Pat is an Ocala son and proudly claims the city as his hometown. He is the recipient of such recognitions as the Small Business Person of the Year and the H.L. Harrell, Sr. Award.

Pat currently belongs to the Florida Association of Insurance Agents, The Society of Certified Insurance Counselors, the Economic Development Council and the Ocala/Marion County Chamber of Commerce. He has served as President of the Marion County Agents' Association, VP and Director for the Chamber, and President of the Boys and Girls Club.

Pat enjoys spending time with his fiancée Dawn, going to the beach, and playing golf.
